Sonia Mendoza.

At the exits of the church you will find a complimentary book called Dynamic Catholic. Every family is encouraged to take one home.
Enjoy!

A Note from Fr. Quealy

Mother's Day is next weekend. Mother's Day Novena envelopes may be found in the envelope packet that is mailed to your home. We also have beautiful Mother's Day cards and novena envelopes at the doors of the church. Please hand in your intentions by way of the collection basket or the rectory before May 14th. These intentions will remain on our altar throughout the month of May and will be included in a special way at all Masses.

*God bless,
Fr. Quealy*

May is the Month of Mary

“...The month of May is a special time for us Catholics to pay homage to our Blessed Mother Mary. Note that I say we pay homage to her...” “... we honor Mary. We do not worship her. She has a unique role in salvation history as the Mother of God, conceived without Sin, who by her own free will agreed to bring the “Word made flesh”, (John 1:14) our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ into the world.

Mary is prefigured as the one who would crush the head of the serpent (a figure of Satan) in Genesis 3:15 through her Divine Son. Still she in no way overshadows Him, nor would she ever wish to!

Her life in the Gospel years was one of service and great devotion to Jesus, from the cave in Bethlehem where she gave birth to Him, to Calvary in Jerusalem where she stood by His cross in His Crucifixion, from Crib to Cross, as it were. While she has a somewhat low profile in the Gospels, her words there still resonate with us today and challenge us to follow her example of humility, obedience, and service to God.

We read when she gives her famous assent to becoming Jesus’ mother: “Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it done to me according to thy word” (Lk 1:38). A short time later she proclaims with joy in the Magnificat when visiting Elizabeth, her relative that “My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior” (Lk.1:46-47).

And, last but not least, what are her final words in scripture? “Do whatever he [Jesus] tells you” (John 2:5). (This is her request to the waiters at the Wedding Feast at Cana right before Jesus turns water into wine with just a thought.)”

• Prayers for our Communion Candidates

Please pick up a name from the baskets located at the exits of the church this weekend and pray for that child who will receive First Holy Communion next Saturday, May 13.

• Registration for 2017-2018

Registration is now open for the 2017-2018 Religious Education school year. Registration packets can be picked up at the rectory office or requested via email at: olsreled@optonline.net

Please Note:

- (1) You must be a registered member of O.L.S. Parish to enroll your child in our Religious Education program
- (2) Religious Education classes are held on Sundays. When signing up for fall, winter & spring activities (i.e., sports, dance, etc.) please make all involved aware of your child’s prior commitment to attend Religious Education and Holy Mass on Sunday mornings.

• Religious Education Teachers, Teen Assistants and Special Education Assistants are needed.

Are you willing to share your faith with our children?

No experience necessary! Please come and join an amazing group of people who may not have planned to be teaching disciples of Jesus, but accepted His call. In turn they have enriched the lives of the children they shepherd as well as enhancing their own spiritual life.

If you think...

- I don’t know enough about my faith to teach
- That’s something other people do, not me
- It will take too much time...

please contact Jen at olsreled@optonline.net or call the Religious Ed office at 914-949-3896.
