A Note from Fr. Quealy

The Bill of Rights guarantees the freedoms we often take for granted. Speech, press, religion, etc. allow us to fulfill our life, our liberty and our pursuit of happiness. At some time during this week whether at a picnic, at the beach, etc., stop what you are doing, look around you and seriously contemplate the great blessings we have, and then say a prayer of thanksgiving. None of these blessings would be possible without the supreme sacrifice of so many men and women who serve our country, our state, and our cities and towns.

Happy Independence Day!

*God Bless,
Fr. Quealy*

“...July 4th is a religious holiday. For this insight, thank John F. Kennedy.”

“...The informing spirit of the American character has always been a deep religious sense. Throughout the years, down to the present, a devotion to fundamental religious principles have characterized American thought and action.”
 “...Our government was founded on the essential religious idea of integrity of the individual. It was this religious sense which inspired the authors of the Declaration of Independence: ‘We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights.’”

John F. Kennedy, July 4, 1946 Faneuil Hall, Boston

“...The same revolutionary beliefs for which our forebears fought are still at issue around the globe – the belief that the rights of man come not from the generosity of the state but from the hand of God.”

John F. Kennedy, January 20, 1961 Inaugural Address

“...So amid all the fireworks and barbeque smoke this July 4th, consider pausing for a moment to reflect on the one our founding fathers called the Creator. As Kennedy realized, the American Revolution – and thus the country we live in today – started with God and the Founders’ belief in rights that are His gift to us. Whatever your religious views, or lack of them, if you are an American, it’s at least worth understanding the idea on which our nation was founded.”

PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

“On the way they entered a Samaritan village, but they would not welcome him because the destination of his journey was Jerusalem... As they were proceeding on their journey someone said to him ‘I will follow you wherever you go... and to another He said ‘Follow me’”

Such great contrasts. No welcome, hesitation, and commitment, all within a few short verses. Today, we find rejection of the invitation, insecurity concerning discipleship, and complete dedication. I ask myself, where do I stand.

Our society and culture finds it difficult to meet the challenge of the gospel. At best there is indifference. Some begin, attracted to the person of Jesus and life in the church, but become lax, or are caught just in routine. Many are dedicated and enthusiastic, as the gospel gives meaning to their lives, enriches their families and brings great joy and peace.

As vacation time begins, it might be a good time to ask where discipleship is leading me and discover the potential I have and the call of the Lord for me in these summer months.
